PRESS RELEASE

“Brighton Rock”

The next showing at the Liphook Millennium Centre Cinema will be “Brighton Rock” on Friday 1st July.

“Brighton Rock” is the remake of Graham Greene’s classic thriller updated from 40s to 60s Brighton. When the head of his local gang is murdered, 17-year old Pinkie (Sam Riley) finds himself in charge, and sets out to get revenge on the man who murdered his mentor. When the deed is done, a waitress named Rose (Andrea Riseborough) threatens to bring all of them down with a photograph connecting one of Pinkie’s gang members to the crime. So in an attempt to clean up the mess, Pinkie decides to seduce Rose with the obvious motive in mind, but things don't go to plan for Pinkie, when Rose's boss Ida (Helen Mirren) begins to take an interest in him.

A strong cast includes Helen Mirren, Andrea Riseborough, and Sam Riley. Writer-director Rowan Joffe returns to the novel to produce a serious piece of work, restoring the religious and moral complexities of the original.

Doors open at 7.30 p.m. and the performance starts at 8 p.m. Tickets are priced at £5, with a concession of £4 for OAPs (60 and over). Tickets are available from the Liphook Millennium Centre 01428 723889, Bramshott & Liphook Parish Council Office – Tel: 01428 722988, and on the door. Tickets can also be ordered by e-mail: liphookmcentre@tiscali.co.uk for collection and payment on the night. A range of refreshments will be on sale.

The film is classified as a ‘15’ which means that children under the age of 15 can not be admitted..
