PRESS RELEASE

“Invictus”

The next showing at the Liphook Millennium Centre Cinema will be “Invictus” on Friday 10 December 2010.

“Invictus” tells the inspiring true story of how Nelson Mandela (Morgan Freeman) joined forces with the captain of South Africa’s rugby team, Francois Pienaar (Matt Damon), to help unite their country. Newly elected President Mandela knows his nation remains racially and economically divided in the wake of apartheid. He rejects revenge, forgives oppressors who jailed him 27 years for his fight against apartheid and believing he can bring his people together through the universal language of sport, Mandela rallies South Africa’s underdog rugby team as they make an unlikely run to the 1995 World Cup Championship match.

Clint Eastwood, named 2009’s Best Director by the National Board of Review, directs this uplifting film about a team and a people inspired to greatness.

Doors open at 7.30 p.m. and the film starts at 8 p.m. Tickets are priced at £5, with a concession of £4 for OAPs (60 and over). Tickets are available from the Liphook Millennium Centre 01428 723889, Bramshott & Liphook Parish Council Office – Tel: 01428 722988, and on the door. Tickets can also be ordered by e-mail: liphookmcentre@tiscali.co.uk for collection and payment on the night. A range of refreshments will be on sale.

The film is classified as a 12A – suitable for 12 years and over. No-one younger than 12 may see a ‘12A’ film in a cinema unless accompanied by an adult and films classified ‘12A’ are not recommended for a child below 12. Films classified as 12A may upset children under 12 or contain material which many parents would find unsuitable for them.

The Cinema Licence for the Liphook Millennium Centre requires that those under the age of 16 can only be admitted if accompanied by an adult.
