PRESS RELEASE

“True Grit”

The next showing at the Liphook Millennium Centre Cinema will be “True Grit” on Friday 5th August 2011.

Following the murder of her father by a drifter named Tom Chaney (Josh Brolin), 14-year-old Mattie Ross (Hailee Steinfeld) sets out to capture the killer and avenge her father's death. She enlists the help of the toughest U.S. marshal she can find, a certain Reuben J. "Rooster" Cogburn (Jeff Bridges) who the child has heard has 'true grit' and insists on accompanying him on the hunt. Rooster's drinking, sloth, and generally reprobate character do not bring her much comfort but after some negotiation the unlikely pair set off into the Indian Nations in search of Chaney. They are joined by Texas Ranger LaBoeuf (Matt Damon), who wants Chaney for his own purposes.

“True Grit” is the Cohen Brothers remake of the 1969 John Wayne classic with their customary grasp of landscape and ‘truly’ extraordinary film making skills. There are cracking performances from Jeff Bridges and Matt Damon.

Doors open at 7.30 p.m. and the performance starts at 8 p.m. Tickets are priced at £5, with a concession of £4 for OAPs (60 and over). Tickets are available from the Liphook Millennium Centre 01428 723889, Bramshott & Liphook Parish Council Office – Tel: 01428 722988, and on the door. Tickets can also be ordered by e-mail: liphookmcentre@tiscali.co.uk for collection and payment on the night. A range of refreshments will be on sale.

The film is classified as a 15. Suitable only for those aged 15 and over. Nobody younger than 15 can see a 15 film in a cinema.

The Cinema Licence for the Liphook Millennium Centre requires that children under the age of 15 can only be admitted if accompanied by an adult.
