The next showing at the Liphook Millennium Centre Cinema in Liphook will be “The Painted Veil” on Friday 1 February 2008 at 8.00pm.

Based on the classic novel by Somerset Maugham, The Painted Veil is an epic and captivating love story set in the 1920s that tells the tale of a young English couple, Walter, a middle class doctor, and Kitty, an upper class woman, who get married for the wrong reasons and relocate to Shanghai, where she falls in love with someone else. In an act of vengeance when he uncovers her infidelity, he accepts a job in a remote village in China ravaged by a deadly epidemic, and insists that Kitty accompanies him. However, the hardship of the journey bring meaning to their relationship and gives them purpose in one of the most remote and beautiful places on earth.

Academy Award-nominees Naomi Watts (King Kong) and Edward Norton (American History X) star alongside Golden Globe-nominee Live Schreiber (The Manchurian Candidate).
