PRESS RELEASE

LIPHOOK SCOUTS AND GUIDES LEASES TO OCCUPY THE LIPHOOK MILLENNIUM CENTRE

Joint press statement issued by the solicitors acting for Bramshott & Liphook Parish Council and the Liphook Scouts and Guides

“The Bramshott & Liphook Parish Council, the representatives of the 1st Liphook Scout Group and the Liphook Guides are pleased to announce that an amicable agreement has been reached concerning the use by the Scouts and Guides of the Liphook Millennium Centre. The Scouts and Guides will be granted a lease at a rent acceptable to both sides. It has been possible to reach agreement without the intervention of the Courts. All parties are now working towards the long term use of the premises by the Scouts and Guides and the Parish as a whole.”

19 April 2007

Notes for Editors:

The statement was made jointly by Mr Mark Ball, Driver Belcher Solicitors representing the Parish Council, and Mr Martin Coakley, Martin Coakley Solicitors, representing the Scouts and the Guides.

The order made by the Court was that no further comment should be made to the press concerning the case.
