PRESS RELEASE

“Julie Felix”

This March sees Liphook Millennium Centre host an outstanding evening of live music when the iconic singer/songwriter Julie Felix will perform at the East Hampshire venue.

Famous for her musical career; which has spanned four decades and seen her rub shoulders with musical greats such as Leonard Cohen, Bob Dylan and Joni Mitchell, Julie will bring her unique blend of songs and fascinating insights into the entertainment world to Liphook.

Originally from Los Angeles, Julie moved to the UK and became the first solo folk artist to be signed to a UK record label when she got a contract with Decca Records. Well known for her performances on The Frost Report in the 1960s, by 1965 she was a major artist, filling the Royal Albert Hall for one of her concerts and becoming known as ‘Britain’s First Lady of Folk’. Julie was part of the great folk movement with Joan Baez, Bob Dylan and Tom Paxton and remained in the public eye throughout the 1970s.

Julie moved to Norway in the late 1970s, where the title track of her 1976 album Hot Chocolata went to number 1 in the singles chart. In the 1980’s she moved back to California, taking a break from the music world. Now living in Hertfordshire, Julie continues performing and recording, having released 22 studio albums. Her rich, distinctive voice and powerful song writing have ensured her continuing success through to the present day.

Now as part of her 2011 tour this folk-rock legend makes a very welcome return to the Liphook Millennium Centre. On her previous visit to Liphook she performed to a sell out crowd.

Julie Felix will be in concert at Liphook Millennium Centre on Friday 25 March 2011 at 7.30 pm. Tickets are priced at £10, with a concession of £8 for children and those aged 60 and over. Tickets are available from the Liphook Millennium Centre 01428 723889, Bramshott & Liphook Parish Council Office – Tel: 01428 722988, and on the door. Tickets can also be ordered by e-mail: liphookmcentre@tiscali.co.uk for collection and payment on the day. A range of refreshments will be on sale.
